112215027@coe.itiip.ac.in	Anushka Bhandari	112215027	9402448874	Event Management	Public Relations	Social Media	I have good speaking skills, can organize well and have some experience in managing events. I also have some basic knowledge about handling social media and believe I could be helpful in either sector.	I want to develop my skills by being part of this active club. I would like to be a helping hand in organizing the fantastic events in our college. I also believe that this would be a great chance for personal development.
112215079@coe.itiip.ac.in	Jai Somani	112215079	9588088144	Event Management	Business Planning	Marketing	I have a good experience in managing my school as a headboy and many more responsibility have given to me earlier then I have managed great well.	I want more experience in this field.
112216002@coe.itiip.ac.in	Ashutosh Singh	112216002	811526782	Business Planning	Public Relations	Marketing	A step without an endorser, a step without an eye, a well without a rope, a mist without wisdom, is what a person without ethics, morals and aptitude, I'm in a phase where I need a guidance, you are in the phase where you need to guide us. So, push I'm ready with hard work, smart work and a lot of determination.	Learning is not a waste, and listening is never fatal. To share and grasp, the opportunity of wisdom and acknowledgement, so here I am with spirit of joy and passion.
112216004@coe.itiip.ac.in	Aditya Suryawanshi	112216004	8529338233	Public Relations	Event Management	Business Planning	I would be a great asset to the club since I can speak fluently and since I'm from pune so making public relations work has a head task for me also I've got friends in almost every college of pune so contacting the authorities of college won't be a challenge for me also I've got direct connections with coe's E-Cell and for event management I've always got prior experience since I was the chairman of a school I had to manage all the college events so I can help in event management as well and since many of my siblings are from IT background I know a little bit about the working model of the IT companies and since from that I'm a really hardworking person and I'm a habit of completing any given task before the due date.	E-Cell is the largest club of IIT Pune and being a part of it will be a really big deal for me, I'm not interested in sports or any other cultural activities so being a part of them club with my set of skills and I'm really interested in management sector of IIT Pune and think being in the E-Cell will benefit me a lot to enhance my skills and develop myself on a personal level also I'll help me learn a lot of things from the seniors and the club will help me build good relations with the seniors so it'll be a great honor to join E-Cell of IIT Pune.
112215148@coe.itiip.ac.in	Ritu Singh	112215148	8888448379	Public Relations	Back End Developer	App Developer	I believe I have the potential to develop a website which will not only be useful to me, but to the club too, in my four years here, I am confident and hard, which is an important quality in today's world.	E-Cell offers everything that one needs to improve skills ranging from soft skills to technical skills. This makes it a golden, and it would be a great opportunity for anyone to be part of this club!
112216184@coe.itiip.ac.in	Tammye Khatun	112216184	9784308303	Marketing	Business Planning	Public Relations	The aim of E-CELL IIT Pune is to create a third for students to innovate and help them to become the greatest.	It was 10th November 2022 when I participated in your flagship event The Ideathon 2022. As soon as I took part in one your events, I decided that this is the place where I want to be. The E-CELL alone coordinated and managed the event, I couldn't believe.
112215005@coe.itiip.ac.in	Adarsh Awasthi	112215005	8349017915	Event Management	Content Writer	Business Planning	Because I have potential to manage the different things together and also have creative content writing skills.	I am really looking forward to be a part of this aspect company and to learn many things working under the talented members of this organization.
112215024@coe.itiip.ac.in	Anshul kumar	112215024	9675853285	Event Management	Public Relations	Business Planning	I've gone through what you are seeking for, and I think that event management is a huge aspect in E-Cell. It is and has been one of my strengths and have been working on it more everyday. Talking about the history, I have managed various events at school events in the school like sports days and sports bonanza, in 11th year college also. And my team were able to successfully conduct maths quiz on national mathematics day with the help of maths department.	I want myself to surround in the group of experienced, creative people and want to improve my communication skills and a cell is the one stop destination for all of these things. Thank you
112215194@coe.itiip.ac.in	Tanuj Lamba	112215194	6575403037	Event Management	Content Writer		I had worked a lot of events in my school days and believe that can be a part of student and contribute in the same way I did in my past. I am profound in public speaking and content writing and had won overall first position in my college in debate.	I find this as an chance to show my skills and confidence, which I have been trying for quite a long time, to bring with myself an pool of innovative thoughts and solutions for this organization. I would be glad to put my best work forward, and proceed to be an ideal candidate. And I feel this platform and club to best exude my skills and enhance them.
112216016@coe.itiip.ac.in	DINANSHU NANGARE	112216016	7738869379	Event Management	Social Media	Content Writer	I believe that I can provide the best outcome for any issue or problem faster and efficiently. I have organized and managed numerous events in my school and junior college days. The key skill of mine on the basis of which you can hire me in this club is that I have a huge networking within our IIT Pune college. I can influence many students of my year since I have much better leadership qualities than my fellow classmates. I assure you that I can contribute the most to this club to make this club even more great. Thanks and regards	I think that e-cell is an excellent club and I can learn some new things which could be helpful in future.
112216020@coe.itiip.ac.in	Ganvi Jadhav	112216020	6307120301	Event Management	Business Planning	Marketing	I have skills and experience of organizing better (using technological part) conducted by my school where more than 25 schools participated and I was core member of that team. So I assure you that I will develop coordination among my team positively.	E-cell is the only club which well known for its achievements. I want to join this club so that I can improve my communication and decision making skills.
112215044@coe.itiip.ac.in	Hareh Bhatti	112215044	7987378717	Marketing	Business Planning	Event Management	Hello myself, Hareh Bhatti I am a person with immense passion towards entrepreneurship, I have always wanted to work on some projects like social practical knowledge by working on promotional and promoting sectors. I also participated in the EDUCATION 2022 event and received a home name prize as well.	I have been interest in management and wants to polish my managing and event organizing skills as much as I can. E-cell provides me with this opportunity to polish my skills.
112215075@coe.itiip.ac.in	Husein bedwala	112215075	7248737237	Business Planning	Marketing	Event Management	My self named as I completed all we had shared our first office in pune, in the span of a little more than a month, I planned the whole office layout, built the office from scratch, hired the right people for it and got the job done. I am extremely skilled in working by myself and with a team, managing people, talking on responsibility and getting the job done is what I am good at. Other than this, I am also good at looking at the big picture, and thus I learned the marketing side of things, people skills in particular, as our company needed to achieve market reach also. I have also handled the company website development aspect, consulting with the designers to get the website ready and finding the developers as to what they needed to work on.	The answer to this is very similar to the above one as I want to improve my skills in the field I am interested from a long time. I really admired how big EDUCATION 2022 was though in such a small place and less time. I don't see E-CELL as a club just for work and stuff, it is my one step ahead towards learning and seeking new stuff.
112216015@coe.itiip.ac.in	Adi Raghavalla	112216015	8148084054	Business Planning	Marketing	App Developer	I bring all the skills required to plan a business structure, work independently as well as in a team, finding the right people for the organization and managing them, arranging having the knowledge to do things on my own also. As a person I am dedicated towards my work and a dream chaser. Entrepreneurship is a skill to set up business I am good at understanding problems and getting consistent solution and understanding demand of a product or market. I am proficient in coding language like C++ which can combine with business planning to make something big.	I am highly inspired by the organization's values wherein people can innovate and create something of their own. The organizing of events for the benefit of students and giving them a platform is a commendable achievement.
							Because I think my skills would catalyze the process at e-cell and add a new value to your great organisation (E-Cell).	I could love to better my skills and contribute as much as I can to the betterment of students.
